

Book Unveiling Ceremony

23 Dec 2021 1:49:13 pm
Index number: 148

23 Dec 2021 1:49:16 pm
Index number: 149

A book unveiling ceremony was held at Sankardeva Mahavidyalaya on 23rd December 2021. Two books were released on that function. The meeting was inaugurated by Hon'ble Principal Dr. Sonaram Kalita. In his inaugural speech, he hailed the author as well as the people associated with the College Magazine. He gave stress on the concept of books that only books have enlightened the modern world. The book entitled "Prosongo: Sahitya Sanskriti" was authored by Arun Kumar Goswami Retired Associate Professor, Department of Assamese, Sankardeva Mahavidyalaya, was unveiled by distinguished literary pundit Bongshi Borah. Mr. Bongshi Borah was very happy to get the rare opportunity to unveil the great literary creation. He was happy with the collection of articles in the book related to literature and culture. He was mesmerized by the cover of the book and praised wholeheartedly. He asked the students to study books as much as possible because books are the real strength of any civilization. He further asked the students to go through the daily news papers and magazines as well. Thereafter Mahavidyalaya magazine named "Aaria" was unveiled by distinguished journalist and translator Arun Jyoti Borah. Mr. Borah was very happy to see the copy of the magazine at hand. He said that college magazine is a great scope for literary advancement of students and so every student must take the opportunity of this literary output. Then, Mr. Arun Kumar Goswami said a few words regarding his endeavor to write out the book. Then, Vice Principal offered his valuable speech on the occasion and with his vote of thanks the meeting concluded.