

Cleanliness Drive Programme and Awareness Programme on Man-Made Hazard (Sub-theme: Waterborne disease)

A cleanliness drive programme was conducted on 25th December, 2021 at Dikrong River. The programme was conducted by the Disaster Management Cell, Sankardeva Mahavidyalaya, Pathalipahar in collaboration with Department of Geography, Sankardeva Mahavidyalaya. The programme was started at 10.00 AM. At the outset of the programme, a welcome speech was given by the Principal, Dr. Sonaram Kalita. In his speech, he spoke about the importance of cleanliness around the surrounding environment. Then the resource person, Nipan Haloi, Assistant Professor, Department of Political science, Sankardeva Mahavidyalaya spoke about the necessity of conducting such programme in quarterly period and stressed that such programme should be conducted by all the department of the colleges. The total number of students was 28.

In the same day, a second programme was conducted at 2.00 PM. At the start of the programme, a welcome speech was given by the Co-ordinator of the Disaster Management Cell, Rupam Gogoi, Assistant Professor, Department of Assamese, Sankardeva Mahavidyalaya. Then the resource person, Mongolsing Bey, Assistant Professor, Department of Geography, Sankardeva Mahavidyalaya spoke about the Man-made Hazards. In his speech, he spoke about the various man-made hazards which are equally affected to environment and human in the surrounding areas. He has also spoken about the various water-borne diseases due to number of human activities and stresses the remedial measures to counter it. In the end, the vote of thanks was given by Rajib Pegu, Nodal Officer, Disaster Management Cell, Sankardeva Mahavidyalaya, Pathalipahar.

