

Institutional Distinctiveness

One Step Towards Unity

Sankardev Mahavidyalaya is known for its commitment towards the Socio-cultural development of the tribal community. The college is situated at the border area of Assam and Arunachal Pradesh. A sizeable number of students of the college come from Arunachal Pradesh as well. Moreover, the college has a large number of students belonging to various tribes from the locality comprising Mising, Deori, Boro, Tea Tribe, etc. Many of them are under privileged coming from remote villages lacking in modern lifestyle facilities such as electricity, water, and other essentials etc. Krishna Kanta Hindique State Open University (KKHSOU) and Shooting Range of the college plays a vital role in developing a harmonious relationship between the two states. The KKHSOU study centre provides Distance Education in Under Graduate and Post Graduate Level to a huge number of students. Sometimes Arunachal Pradesh Sports Association under the banner of Shooting Range Sankardev Mahavidyalaya organizes State Level Shooting Competition. Thus, the college is gradually developing the bond between Assam and Arunachal Pradesh and also it works as a bridge in the process of acculturation between the tribes and non-tribes of the area.
