2.2.1: The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Sankaradeva Mahavidyalaya admits students from different socio-economic backgrounds and conducts every possible measure to assess the learning levels of the students. The students are counseled, guided and oriented immediately after the admission to make them aware about the course, mode of internal assessment, external evaluation, curricular and co-curricular activities as well as facilities available in the college. They conduct different levels of in their respective departments and after analyzing the result, they divide the students into two groups-advanced learner and slow learner.

Strategies adopted for slow learners

1. To support slow learners, the students are provided simple and standard lecture notes/course materials.
2. Remedial Classes are conducted with an aim to improve the academic performance of the slow learners.
3. Bilingual explanation and discussions are imparted to the slow learners after the class hours for better understanding.

Strategies for the advanced learners

1. The advanced learners are encouraged to make poster and PPT presentations.
2. The advanced learners are constantly guided and encouraged for participation in seminars, symposiums as well as in inter-collegiate competitions.
3. Advanced students also assist slow learners through group discussions, fostering a collaborative learning environment.
4. They are informed about different competitive examinations and are motivated to participate in extra-curricular activities, exhibitions and cultural competitions.
5. Advanced learners are encouraged to enroll in MOOC Courses like Swayam etc.
